READ. NOTICE. REMEMBER.

Small steps, lasting progress

A reading practice for your first vocabulary book

Reading is a journey of discovery. Every paper brings new ideas and a chance to carry with you something worth remembering.

I saw many flying birds near the river yesterday.

The researchers developed a collaborative delivery system.

Their approach can improve efficiency and reduce energy use.

Try selecting one word: discovery

Try selecting a phrase: carry with

Try a technical phrase: collaborative delivery system

Small daily habits help us make steady progress.

Keep the original spelling and check every unfamiliar word.

Click a word. Drag across a phrase. Press Enter to save.

Your next chapter

Watching TV can help with listening comprehension.

mother china China carry with watching TV

A long word may wrap: international cooperation.